

Qatar Stock Exchange Corporate Challenge Returns to 2020 Ooredoo Ride of Champions Open to All in the Private Sector

The QSE Corporate Challenge Returns and Ads QSE CEO Challenge and Individual Prizes

As part of its Corporate Social Responsibility strategy, Qatar Stock Exchange (QSE) has continued to work with the Ooredoo Ride of Champions growing the QSE Corporate Challenge, to promote healthy living within the business community.

The Ooredoo Ride of Champions is the biggest mass-participation cycling event in Qatar and the pinnacle of the community events organized by Qatar Cyclists, as it offers rides that suits all ages and experience levels, with ability friendly categories added in 2020.

2000 participants is the target this to take part in this event which will be hosted by Qatar Foundation on 13th March 2020.

In 2019 the QSE Corporate Challenge was a first of kind, offering prizes to its most active companies during the Ride of Champions. For 2020, in addition to the team awards, two new individual awards has been added.

The QSE Corporate Challenge Health Champion Award will be presented to the company who encourages the most members of its staff and their families to participate in the event at any distance, whether it be kids, family ride (on closed roads in QF), or open road short (48km), medium (78km) and long (137.5km) events.

While, the QSE Corporate Challenge Speed Champions Award will be presented to the company whose got the fastest adult team. The results of which will be calculated by determining the QSE listed company with the fastest average speed for its 4 fastest riders over any of the open road distances (48km), medium (78km) and long (137.5km) events.

Prizes for the QSE Corporate Challenge will be awarded the week after the event at the companies office, including a trophy for the company to keep at its offices and recognition for the year in the QSE offices and on the trading floor.

New for 2020, are two individual awards;

QSE CEO Challenge, a new challenge to encourage the leaders of private sector companies and organisations to participate, and lead from the front, will see the fastest CEO, Chairman, Owner or Chief Financial, Marketing or other Chief level officer. The prize will go to the fastest 'CEO' by average speed (overall in road events). To include yourself in the CEO challenge, tick the CEO box when entering the corporate challenge or if already registered email info@rocdoha.qa

Fastest Corporate Rider (at each distance), a new challenge to recognise the fastest corporate challenge rider as an individual over each of the 3 road ride distances. The prize will be awarded to the fastest QSE Challenge participants by time (by distance).

Mr. Rashid Bin Ali Al-Mansoori, CEO of QSE commented: "QSE, is not only committed to the financial health of our listed companies, but also to their social and physical health, and that of the wider business community. We are proud to be continue this partnership agreement, and widen participation to include the entire private sector, and encourages members of our community to practice sports and lead healthy lifestyles."

The QSE Corporate Challenge Awards will be presented the week after the Ooredoo ride of champions and will include a trophy for the company that will be displayed at its offices, while they will also be recognised on the trading floor at the QSE offices for the year.

Dr. Abulazziz Al Kuwari, President of Qatar Cyclists, said: "We are thrilled that QSE has continued its partnership with the Ooredoo Ride of Champions. Their unique support of our events helps promote cycling among the employees of not only their listed-companies, but the wider business community. It is often easy in business to neglect both your mental and physical health, so it is great they are encouraging people in these areas."

Participants eligible to join the QSE Corporate Challenge will need to register to take part in the Ooredoo Ride of Champions, and if they are already registered but haven't listed their company, they will be able to inform the organisers at registration or can also do that before the event by sending an email to info@rocdoha.com.

Participants eligible to join the QSE Corporate Challenge will need to register to take part in the Ooredoo Ride of Champions via this link (Rocdoha.qa/registration), and if they are already registered but haven't listed their company, they will be able to inform the organisers at registration or can also do that before the event by sending an email to info@rocdoha.qa

Mr. Hamad Al Jaaidi, Co-Managing Director Ooredoo Ride of Champions said that "QSE and our event partners continue to set the example to all companies in Qatar on how to use community events to promote sports and active lifestyles. Thanks to their support we have grown from 800 in 201 The Ride of Champions is an ideal event to achieve this thanks to the spectacular family atmosphere it offers and its unique concept of offering all participants a chance to feel like champions for one day".

Ride of Champions

Other official partners and supporters of the Ooredoo Ride of Champions include Al Fardan Group, Dolphin Energy, Turkish Airlines, Ministry of Culture and Sports, Qatar Cycling Federation, Razen Sport, Garmin Lingawi and Rayyan Water.

To learn more about Ooredoo Ride of Champions please visit www.rocdoha.qa or follow @rocdoha on Twitter, Instagram and Facebook.
